neseed by all who delight in dramatic pageants. WASHINGTON THEATER.-The management of this popular resort has passed temporarily into the bands of Miss Susan Denin and, under the name of "The Olympic," she will give in it a series of splendid dramatic entertainments. Miss Denin has not only engaged a fine com-pany, but will herself take part in the per-formances. "Sweethearts and Wives" and "My Substitute" are announced for this evening senteriainment.

CANTERBURY .- Manager Sinn commences his fall s ason by announcing a bill and a corps of performers superior to anything yet introduced at the popular Canterbury Hall. Miss Fannie Wilson will appear in her charming impersonations of Roman and Grecian statuary. The extravaganza, "The Fairy Gift," will be performed. Miss Ernestine de Faiber, a charming actress and danseuse, and the popular Dick Parker bave both been engaged. Pretty Lillie Brandon is also again on the hoards.

A SERIOUS Row .- About 12 o'clock Saturday night a very severe fight came off in the notorious house, No. 291 D street, Second Ward, which disturbed the respectable neighbors, and caused much commotion in the street. The cries of "murder" and "watch" reached the ears of detectives Bigley and Barry and patrolman Neilson, who immediately rushed into the house. The officers took possession of the doors, and, showing their official badges, declared that no one should leave till they ascertained the cause of the row. Two powerful young men, named Napoleon Brewer and John Clancy, made a desperate resistance, and tried to escape. Officers Bigley and Barry clung to them notwithstanding they were struck by the surrounding party. Brewer managed to get out, and ran, but was retaken on the avenue, and, with Clancy, was locked up in the station-house. Sunday morning the case was laid before Justice Clayton. Clancy came out of the cells some what bloody, but not much cut. Brewer had several cuts on his head, indicating a severe fight. From the evidence of the girls. i appeared that the fight was started with a small man name unknown, by Clancy. According to one girl's statement, Clancy had the small man down, and was "eating his nose;" and another says that while the small map was down Brewer kicked him. The small man managed to get away and escape. Justice Clayton fined the two prisoners $5 each for fighting. Roundsman Mattingly inquired into the origin of the affair, and reported that the proprietress (Madame Joe is the name she is known by) started it by persuading one party to put another out; but the evidence was not sufficient, or he would have arrested all the inmates. He also reports that a similar disturb-

A LEBERVED COMPLIMENT .- Brig. Gen. J. H. Martindale, the popular Military Governor of this District, received a screnade on Saturday night last by the officers of the Second D. C. and the 178th New York Regiments. The band used on the occasion was that attached to the Second District Columbia regiment, Col. Alexander commanding, and its performances were most excellent. On arriving at the residence of General M., ance occurred in that house the night before.

several airs were rendered in excellent style, after which the General made his appearance, and in a pertinent address acknowledged the compliment tendered him. He concluded his remarks with an appeal to those by whom he was surrounded to steer clear of all faction at feelings, and remembering that this war had for its object the restoration of the Union and the saving of the old flag from pollution, to fall in with every measure that would advance these encs, and spurn down everything that would hinder them. This sentiment was received with hearty applause.

Gen. Martindale then extended an invitation to "come in," which was accepted, and after an hour or so spent in profitable conversation and in discussing the hospitalities of their entertainer, the party dispersed.

On their way to Gen. Martindale's, Colonel Whitely of the New York Herald, was also

ATTEMPT TO STEAL GOVERNMENT HORSES. Between two and three o'clock Saturday morning, John Dean, the superintendent of the Government stables connected with Gen. Heintzle-man's headquarters, discovered that William Craus, the watchman, had put out all the lights, and had decamped, taking two fine horses, the property of Lieut. Col. E. M. Greene, Chief Quartermaster Department, of Washington. The men employed in the stables immediately turned out and searched for the thief, but were unsuccessful in their efforts to catch him. The horses were recovered by Policeman Barclay, who, seeing Craus at a rather unusual bour, made bim balt, and questioned him as to whose horses he had, and why he was out at each an hour. Craus stated that they were his brother's horses, who was a sutler. The officer proceeded to examine the horses, and while he was so engaged Craus slipped from the horse he was riding and escaped. Officer Barclay fired on him, but without effect. The horses were taken to Col. Baker's office yesterday

A RARB CHANCE .- We call attention to the sale of the Green Hill estate, advertised in another column, to take place on next Thursday at 12 o'clock. It is well known as the residence of the Digges family. In whose possession it has been since the first settlement of the country, and the title is therefore indisputable. This is one of the finest estates in the vicinity of Washington. It is one hour's drive from the city, proverbially, healthy, beautifully located for country residences, well watered, and has meadows, uplands, and immeuse body of primitive caks; many of these caks would make excellent ship timber, and it is said enough timber could be cut from the woods to pay for the estate. The drive is over an excellent road, and we would advise those who want a country residence to attend the sale. BURGLARY -About two o'clock yesterday morning a burglar entered the residence of Rev. Dr. Gurley, on I street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth. The burglar, who appeared to be a colored man, went into the dressing-room adjoining Dr. Gurley's bed-chamber, and stole a gold watch valued at $60. He made some noise, and aroused the Doctor, who got up and tried to secure him, but was unsuccessful. The thief took a pair of pants, in a pocket of which was $40, but he dropped them in his hurry to escape. NOT ROBBED. - An item appeared in the Star a few days ago stating that a certain captain, boarding at the Washington House, had there been robbed of an amount of money. It now al pears that the captain was intoxicated at the time, and that he did not I se his money at all, but that, while attempting to put it in his pocket, be jut i in the lining of his cout, and subse-

ROBBERY .- Theodore L. Moody, and his son, occupying the third story of nouse No. 487 Eleventh street, near E, was robbed on Friday night of a fine gold plated cylinder watch to which was attached a pure Venetian gold chain, a gold pencil, a white cornelian heart, a gold locket with the likeness of his dece used daughter, a silver watch, with a black chain attached, a diamond breastpin, and $13 in green backs. The door of the chamber was not locked, and the parties entering must have been well acquainted with the premises. A colored woman named Wilson, who, with her bu band, occupied the basement, was arrested and carried before Justice Clayton-though nothing but strong circumstantial evidence has been elicited.

FOURTH WARD STATION CASES .- Norton Warner, suspicion of larceny; dismissed. Oatharine Noonan, drunk; do. Joseph McCarthy, drunk; military. Robert Herrick, larceny of a watch; dismissed. John Fitzsimmons, drunk; dismissed. Molly Baker, drunk and disor-derly: $2.94. James Clifford, drunk: dismissed. John Kumtel, drunk and disorderly: military. John Pealer, larceny; dismissed. It is quite a common essentiation, that consumption is the chief curse or this climate preying upon old and young, and scattering widely its states of destruction. But all the have ever traveled through the South and West, or indeed through any pertion of the interior of the country, must have notice i that there is a disease far more prevalent among Americans, that consumption. Day after day they are alternately shaking as with a nervous fit or rendered delirious with fever. Most of them find an early grave. No one who has ever seen or experienced this disease, can fail to perceive that we allude to wast is called Fever and Agus.
